

Global Custody Solution

For professional adviser use only

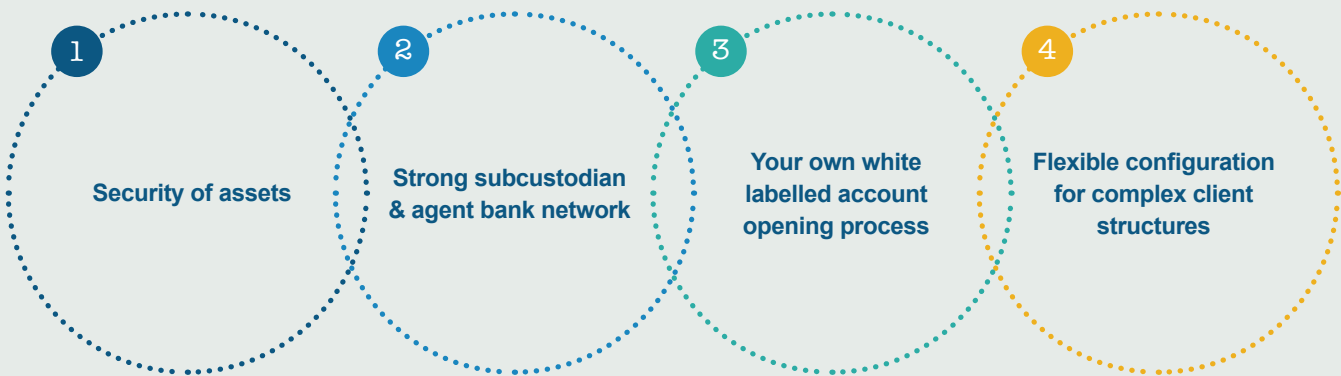

Your Challenge

Your customers require a global safe custody solution to help protect their onshore and offshore assets. You require responsive and efficient services from a company that applies the highest possible standards when administering and safeguarding customer assets.

Our Advanced Answer

- Multrees provides high quality custody services focused on the protection of investor assets. With permission to hold and control client money, Multrees' organisation-wide commitment to the protection of customer assets provides our wealth manager clients with invaluable support in discharging their own client money obligations to their retail customers.
- Our business model is transparent and un-conflicted – we do not engage in any trading or risk taking activities of our own.
